A Large, Artistic House for $3,500.

CLYDE S. ADAMS' ARCHITECT.

This house has been designed to suit the requirements of a medium sized family, and is suited for a suburban location. In elevation it is all that can be desired for comfort and beauty.

A spacious porch runs the entire width of the front, giving plenty of space for the enjoyment of the summer months in the open air.

The interior is somewhat larger than most houses, and all rooms are arranged for comfort, light and ventilation. There is a hall of fair size, from which the main stairway is seen to great advantage. A large living room opens into the hall. Dining room, kitchen, pantry and conservatory are also conveniently arranged.

The second floor has four large bed rooms and bath, ample closet room and a large linen closet, which is very desirable.

The following items show amount for which this house may be constructed:

Digging	$ 75	Hardware	100	Plumbing	150
Stone work	150	Lumber	750	Hot Air Heating	100
Cement floor	30	Painting	200	Range	50

OLD HOMESTEAD
PACKED THEATRE

At Both Matinee and Night Performances People Were Turned Away.

OVER TWENTY YEARS OLD

Wells' Theatres All Close on Good Friday—Miss Grace George Here Wednesday.

"The Old Homestead" gave absolute proof of its wonderful drawing powers, when on yesterday, in the season of Lent, it packed the Academy at both matinee and night performances.

There was absolutely not a single empty seat in the theatre, even the third tier galleries being filled and perhaps a hundred were turned away.

Mr. Franklin Thompson, the manager, a son of "the" Denman Thompson, is authorizing the statement that in Lynchburg Friday night his original company rounded up an even, twenty years of "The Old Homestead."

The great human interest play was seen in New York for three and one-half years without a break, and held the record of never being played but one single week at a pecuniary loss.

In Woolly Kansas.

The "single week" occurred this season in Kansas, where the local managers of one-night stands had never heard of "The Old Homestead."

The story reminds one of the mountaineer who had not heard that the Civil War was over.

The play is one that needs no criticism, for it has become a classic and is as familiar to all theatre-goers as the tragedy of Hamlet.

Mr. Denman Thompson, on account of illness, was not with his company, but "Joshua Whitcomb" was in the capable hands of Mr. William Lawrence, and but few in the audience were aware of the change.

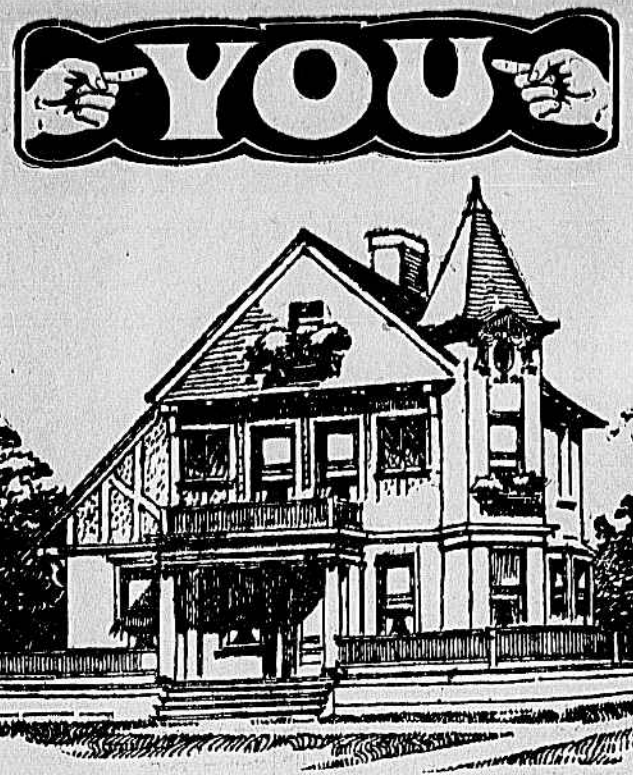

The company was excellent and the performance delighted the enormous audience that crowded the play house.

A word of praise is due the "double quartette" and Miss Anna L. Fowler, who played "Ricketty Ann."

Mr. Wells has announced that all the theatres of his circuit will be closed on Good Friday. This is no new departure for Mr. Wells' theatres have always observed the day.

"The Problem of Heredity."

Prof. John B. DeMotte, scientific lecturer, will give the closing number of the association course to-morrow night. Dr. DeMotte has already spoken at Richmond twice, giving on one occasion, the first of his series of lectures, "The Harp of the Senses, or The Secret of Character-Building," and a year or two ago, the second lecture, "Frypan Eggs and the American Boy." On the 16th he will give the third of the series, "A Plea for Humanity, or the Problem of Heredity." Dr. DeMotte needs no introduction to a Richmond audience. He is one of the foremost scientific lecturers on the American stage. His lectures are deeply interesting and instructive, and are illustrated by magnificent stereoscopic views.

"SOWING AND REAPING."

Interesting Series of Meetings Begun at West End Church.

An interesting series of meetings will begin this evening at the West End Christian Church, when Mrs. Helen Louise Bullock, of Elmira, N. Y., will address all those interested in temperance on "Sowing and Reaping." This lecture will be under the auspices of the Tri-City Women's Christian Temperance Union, of which Mrs. Tyler Johnson is president.

Monday evening at 8 o'clock Mrs. Bullock will speak at the First Baptist Church, her subject being, "Open Doors." Tuesday evening, at the same hour, she will address the Church Hill people in Venable Street Baptist Church, taking for her theme, "The Old World and the New."

Mrs. Bullock is a woman of magnetic personality and great rhetorical gifts. Her lectures have been highly praised everywhere she has been—and she has visited all the largest cities in the country. This is the first time a Richmond audience has ever had the opportunity of hearing this gifted woman and all who can will do well to attend at least one of the lectures. No collections will be taken at any time.

GILES SAYS "YANKEE" DOESN'T LOVE NEGRO

Colored Lawyer Makes Characteristic Speech in Police Court.

Giles Jackson's speech in defense of a negro woman, whose daughter had charged her with assault and abuse, was the feature in the Police Court proceedings yesterday morning. It had been more than a year since the negro lawyer appeared before Justice Crutchenfeld to defend a person charged with an offense against the laws, and all of the persuasive powers of the attorney seemed to break loose.

Mathe Harris, a negro woman, was charged with assaulting and threatening Mary Young, her daughter. Giles got into the game, and when he was through cross-questioning the daughter it was clear to the mind of the court that Mathe Harris does even more than threatened to beat the woman; there would have been no offense against the law.

But it was the argument put up by the negro lawyer, "These young negroes are not reared right, and that's the reason so many cases are brought here to you," said Giles. "I have been practicing here for twenty years, and not in that time

Want a Home of Your Own?

HAVE BEEN LONGING FOR ONE FOR YEARS?

Can't Afford to Build?

HAVE NOT SUFFICIENT CASH TO PURCHASE ONE?

We can overcome all these difficulties by loaning the money you need to build on easy terms, namely: Low rate of interest (5 per cent.); long time (10 1-2 years); easy payments, $7.50 per thousand, per month. Small amount to pay down, less than $100 all told. Rent then pays for home. Paying rent is BURNING MONEY. Stop it! Now! To-morrow makes no promise to you.

OUR PROPOSITION

An average monthly payment of $6.66 pays interest and principal on $1,000 in 10 1-2 years, and pro rata for as many thousands as you use. Or, you can pay at any time as much as you wish. It is a simple business proposition. If you can beat it, don't call to see us. If not, "come with us, and we will do thee good."

have I had to defend a client whose head was as gray as mine. And this young woman comes here and charges her mother with abuse. I say that the young woman ought to be taken home and whipped, no matter if she is twenty-one years old."

Giles then launched into a question of the North and the South, and in reply to questions from Justice Crutchenfeld told of efforts to secure appropriations from Congress and from Massachusetts for the exposition. He said that the Yankees don't love the nigger and that the Yankees wasn't going to antagonize the Southern people, because his money was invested here.

"Why look at Mr. Gould when he came down here. He went to see Mr. Sittord, instead of coming to me," broke out Giles, and the laugh that followed lasted for several minutes.

Preach at Neighborhood House. The Rev. Ernest E. Osgood, rector of Emanuel Episcopal Church, Brook Hill, will preach at the chapel of the Neighborhood House, 821 Brook Avenue, to-night at 8 o'clock. The chapel has been very attractively fitted up and the new seats recently purchased are expected to be installed for this service. Special music will be rendered by a quartette.

Awarded to Carolina.

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., April 7.—The ninth annual debate between the University of Georgia was held last evening at 8 o'clock in Gerrard Hall, and resulted in a unanimous victory for Carolina. This contest marks the third successive victory for Carolina, and makes her the winner of six out of the series of nine. The question under discussion was: "Resolved, That the best interests of our country demand that our tariff policy be revised on a basis of tariff for revenue only."

Georgia upheld the affirmative of the question, and was represented by Van Whitell and Lansing B. Lee, while Carolina's team, sustaining the negative, was composed of J. J. Parker and W. B. Love.
